

hour so that we can accommodate some Senators who have commitments, and also so that we can turn relatively quickly tomorrow to the opening debate on the budget resolution. Senator DOMENICI and Senator LAUTENBERG, the managers of the legislation, will be available, and they will begin the debate. And we hope to use at least 6 hours of that time tomorrow.

Following that vote at 9 o'clock on Friday morning, the Senate will begin the budget resolution, which has 50 hours of time under the statute. We will return to further debate on it on Monday and have a considerable amount of time for debate then.

I think by the close of business tomorrow we will have had a productive week. I thought we could finish things earlier. It took about 3 days longer than I thought on the supplemental, but we have gotten the supplemental down to final action by the Senate. And we could not pass it with the final vote anyway until the House acts. So sometime Tuesday then, assuming the House acts, we would expect to complete the final action on the supplemental appropriations bill.

We have, I think, made progress on the Coverdell education savings account bill. And we will get that issue resolved as to how we take it up one way or the other by or before Tuesday morning. In addition to that, we will have taken up some nominations, and we will have had about 6 hours of time on the budget resolution, as well as the vote on Mexico decertification.

Now, there still remains an awful lot to do to get through the budget resolution. It is quite an experience. We hope to have a more orderly process this time so that we can avoid the final night "vote-rama" where we have 10, 20, 30 votes or more in a row. But that will take a lot of cooperation from Senators. And certainly it will take direction from the managers of the bill.

It appears at this time, because of the agreement that has been worked out on the budget resolution, that we will not have a recorded vote on Monday at 5:30 as had been earlier anticipated. I want to check further with both sides of the aisle to make sure that that is agreed to and is acceptable. I think it is important we tell Members as early as possible, but it will give us then more uninterrupted time to work on the budget resolution.

Again, as a reminder to all Members, the next vote will occur tomorrow at 9 a.m.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9 A.M. TOMORROW

Mr. LOTT. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I now ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 8:08 p.m., adjourned until Friday, March 27, 1998, at 9 a.m.
